

Kay Farrell is the founder and principal guide of Málaga Bike Tours. Born and raised in England, Kay later lived in Toronto, Canada for twenty years but now calls Spain home. Malaga Bike Tours, founded in May 2008, is the pioneer bicycle tour company in the city of Malaga.

Since the beginning, the company has gone from strength to strength, building a solid reputation in the tourism industry based on professional customer service and a passion for what we do.

“I’m passionate about Málaga and Andalusian culture and, of course, cycling,” enthuses Kay. “I love seeing all ages and cultures choosing the bicycle to discover this jewel of a city with me and my team. The Málaga Bike Tour is, in my opinion, simply the best way to see Málaga. If you want to feel as if a close friend is showing you around the city, then you won’t be disappointed. I believe a major part of our success has been based on providing the best customer service possible, and treating every client in a warm, friendly yet professional manner. All our guides are native speakers of English, Spanish, German and Dutch and all are dedicated to providing a personalized and memorable experience.”
